VOICE OF VICTORY 2020 FAQ's

Who is Eve Center - Cincinnati? MISSION- Eve Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting healing and growth for women through biblical, no-cost, safe and confidential peer counseling and training.

VISION- Eve Center desires for every hurting women to have access to emotional, relational, and spiritual care that provides lasting hope. Our goal is to walk alongside women while listening, encouraging, comforting, and building into her right Visit evecenter.org for more details.

Who should audition? And do I need to be female to participate? Auditions are open to the general public, all residents of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, ages 18 and older! We are a female based organization but this is NOT a female ONLY event! We know we need our guys to support us too! The organizers are looking for top talent of all genres who sing appropriate songs that celebrate the theme of "Victory" of all sorts!

What is the purpose of this Gala and Fundraiser? "We are excited to host an event that exemplifies the core of what we do at the Eve Center - Cincinnati, help women find their voice and use it for victory in their everyday lives. The event promises to encourage all who attend, celebrate all we've accomplished in Cincinnati, and show our guests just how talented and amazing our Tri-state is," Says Gina Sanders, Eve Center Director of Community Relations and Voice of Victory event lead. We are a non-profit, 501-3C and this is our annual gala and fundraiser to support the cost of doing the great work we do and speak to who we are in our community at the same time.

What's the Event look like in format? How are applicants selected? And who are the judges? The event organizers will select 5 finalists to perform at Sharonville Convention Center on November 6, 2020 for a live audience. A panel of local celebrity judges and gala guests will vote for their favorite artist and the first-place winner will be awarded $1,000 and the runner up will receive $500. Our 2018 inaugural year sold out 3 weeks in advance, and the second year we seated 400 guests. This year will require limited seating due to Covid-19 protocol. We will sell out.

A diverse, unique, meaningful and high energy line up will be important to us! Show us your performance song in your audition video! Stage Presence and Song Selection are key to becoming a finalist!

Who should attend? If performing live for an audience isn't your forte, the event organizers invite you to sit back, relax and enjoy the entertainment, including dinner and silent auction/raffles, as an attendee. The event will be a first-class production, featuring professional sound equipment to highlight the talented voices in our community. A Voice of Victory general admission ticket is $75 and available after August 7, 2020 online www.evecenter.org/voice-of-victory/

What benefits are offered to the contestants? America's Got Talent has reached out to us for some of our talent contact information in the past! One of our contestants was retweeted by Justin Bieber and has a substantial increased following! Google Osby Berry, You're Welcome. Our Grand Prize Winner 2018, Nikea Dills sang "Never Enough" from the movie/ musical The Greatest Showman, brought the house down and took home $1000. Not so bad?! Our Grand Prize Winner 2019, Charice Rodgers sang "I'm Here" from The Color Purple and walked home with the $1000 Grand Prize!

Each contestant has shared with us their connection to each other and support they have from their experience at this special event! It's a game changer personally and professionally! Each contestant will be given a "plus one" ticket to invite their special someone for support! We ask that you invite your network to purchase a table to support you too! Many contestants find that their home church will purchase a table in support of them and fill it with FANS!

How has Covid-19 impacted the event plans? Eve Center – Cincinnati is working closely with Sharonville Convention to provide a safe and successful event. Masks will be required upon entering the building until seated for dinner or while performing. All talent will report to the Green Room for check-in and while not performing. Dinner and Beverages are provided.
